Dear Tom:

I am still getting to know all of the papers in this case.

In light of the First Circuit ruling that your clients are deemed to have withdrawn from the partnership as of October 1, 2003, it seems that they should formally resign as Trustees of the Trust. Accordingly, I enclose Resignation forms for each of your clients.

Can you have your clients sign these, get their signatures notarized, and return them to me at your earliest convenience?

Very truly yours,

Sander A. Rikleen

U.S. Dist. Ct., Dist. of Mass., No. 03-CV-12231-RGS

Dear Tom:

Following up on Chris' recent telephone conversation with you and on my letter dated September 21, 2006, I have enclosed forms for each of your clients to resign as trustees of T&N Realty Trust.

Can you have your clients sign these, get their signatures notarized, and return them to me at your earliest convenience? With the trial date approaching, we would like to remove the issue of diversity jurisdiction from the case as soon as possible.

The Resignations will be effective upon recording at the Registry, at which time the parties will need to jointly inform the Court that they have resolved Counterclaim Count III (seeking to compel such resignations).

Very truly yours,

Sander A. Rikleen
